FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Clewiston Solid Waste Collection Transfer Station Closed

LaBelle Solid Waste Collection Transfer Station Closing This Afternoon

(September 8, 2017, 1pm) – LaBelle, Fla. – The Solid Waste Collection transfer station in Clewiston has halted operations.

The Solid Waste Collection transfer station in LaBelle will be closing at 2pm, Friday, September 8, 2017.

Residents are urged to halt all waste collection and disposal, and to not leave trash cans or lids curbside or in right-of-ways. Residents are asked to ensure that trash cans and lids are secure or safely stored away on their property to avoid being hazardous items during possible wind events or drainage blocks.

There will be no garbage pick-up for the remainder of the week in Hendry County. Waste Connections of Florida will resume collections for unincorporated Hendry County pending the effects of Hurricane Irma.

Hendry County has established a hotline for residents with questions and concerns regarding Hurricane Irma. The number for this hotline is 863-674-5410.
