

This is an isolated case and there is no evidence of community transmission

Like other areas we do expect more cases as this evolves.

Protection and control measures have been in place from the time of initial testing.

The medical infrastructure is ok and not overrun.

If you are sick stay home and call your doctor

Please follow the latest guidance for travel and mass gatherings.

Mostly, please do not panic.

People can call our call center number it is on the hendry.flhealth.gov page