

Clewiston Golf Course to be re-named and dedicated in Honor of former U.S. Sugar CEO J. Nelson Fairbanks

Clewiston, FL – On Tuesday, September 15, representatives from U.S. Sugar and community leaders will gather to re-name and dedicate the Clewiston Golf Course in honor of the late J. Nelson Fairbanks. Fairbanks served as President and Chief Executive Officer of U.S. Sugar from 1987 until his retirement in 2000. Fairbanks was known for his love of sports and his love of the Clewiston community. Held annually since 2015 until his passing, the J. Nelson Fairbanks/U. S. Sugar Golf Tournament raised more than $316,000 for Clewiston's golf course and recreational programs.

The newly christened J. Nelson Fairbanks Clewiston Golf Course is open to the public.

All interested media are invited to attend or watch the dedication via Facebook Live on U.S. Sugar's Facebook page.
